

ANNOUNCEMENT

Doctoral Scholarships

The University of Erfurt is a reform university with a strong profile in humanities, educational and social sciences. On a campus nearby the Old Town of Erfurt, junior researchers benefit from an innovative promotion, mentoring and an excellent research infrastructure.

The University of Erfurt awards up to 12 scholarships to doctoral candidates as part of its structured doctoral programme from 1 January 2022.

The doctoral scholarships include a stipend of €1.400 per month with an extra family-allowance (€300 for one/the first child plus €150 for any further child) and are granted for three years.

Beyond financial support, the University of Erfurt offers its scholarship holders the following benefits:

- an individual workspace (depending on capacity);
- support and start-up formats for research and networking with other academics;

- an „Academic Career and Qualification Programme“ to promote interdisciplinary academic expertise;
- platforms for communicating your own research to the general public (e.c. Science Slam).

Detailed information about the announcement, the funding requirements and the application documents can be found on the website of the University of Erfurt:
