

Invitation to the public part of the international workshop

„Decolonising academic disciplines and collections“

Date:	Wednesday, June 7th, 2023
Venue:	Universitätsbibliothek Marburg: Vortragssaal (Lecture Hall) Deutschhausstraße 9, 35037 Marburg (Lahn)
13:00 – 13:15	Registration
13:15 – 13:30	Welcome and introduction (Benedikt Stuchtey)
13:30 – 14:30	Opening lecture Jos van Beurden (Amsterdam) Colonial collections, restitution and issues of inequality
14:30 – 15:15	Coffee break & Get-together
15:15 – 15:45	Bruno Brulon Soares (St. Andrews) Decolonising as Rehumanising: some Indigenous lessons for museums
15:45 – 16:15	Jan Küver (Witzenhausen / Iringa) The absence and presence of objects: Appropriation and Restitution
16:15 – 16:20	Tanja Pommerening (Marburg) A short introduction to the "Wigand's Drug Collection" and the temporary exhibition
16:20 – 17:00	Visit to the temporary exhibition "Wigand's Drug Collection"

Evening Lecture

Time:	19:00
Venue:	Historischer Rathaussaal Markt 1, 35037 Marburg (Lahn)

Miranda Lowe

Principal curator at the Natural History Museum London

Reimagining Collecting & Collections using decolonial practice in Natural History Museums

Welcome note by city councillor Kirsten Dinnebier and brief introduction to the workshop by Tanja Pommerening.

Kindly sponsored by the Ursula-Kuhlmann-Fond.